You will be able to go online this evening to book your appointment(s). If you are experiencing problems logging on or have forgotten your details, please drop in after school on Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday to see Mr Phelps who will help you retrieve your details.

Mr Phelps

For children in Year 2 and Year 5 who are taught Maths by Mr Phelps, you will be able to book an appointment to see him via eSchools also.

Willow Class

Mrs Marshall will be available to carry out parents evening on Tuesday 20th March and Mrs Breakwell will be available to carry out parents evening on Thursday 22nd March. You only need to book an appointment to see one of them.

Please note if your child is on a My Plan, My Plan + or has an EHCP you do not have to book or attend a parents evening appointment. Letters will be sent home inviting parents to attend a separate shared conversation.

Mrs Clements

As you may be aware, Mrs Clements will be retiring at Easter. On Tuesday 27th March we will be holding a surprise tea party for her after school, in the hall. All Welcome! It will be a lovely surprise and a great farewell. We are having a collection for a gift and if you would like to contribute, please send the donation to the office in a sealed envelope.

World Book Day

Last Thursday, we opened our doors to over one hundred wonderful characters! The snow didn't stop our celebrations of reading. We are most definitely a Reading School!

Our day began with an exciting whole-school Assembly in the hall. We found out about the importance of World Book Day and we were surprised to learn that it is celebrated in over one hundred countries around the world! We talked about why books are so special to us and we discussed our favourite authors and texts. Staff were delighted that the children were able to talk about a whole host of authors as each month, we find out about the life and work of a different author. Throughout March, we will be finding out all about Michael Rosen, the author of the fabulous, 'We're Going on a Bear Hunt'.

Then we all listened to one of Julia Donaldson's stories, called 'The Scarecrows' Wedding' and we talked about some of her other stories.

Each class then paraded through the hall so that we could all admire the huge array of costumes. It was great fun spotting different characters!

When we returned to our classrooms, we shared stories and had chance to enjoy one of our favourite pastimes - independent reading for pleasure! We also got involved in the World Book Day competition to design a national book token and we can't wait to hear whether any of our entries are successful. Around the school, children made creative 'corner bookmarks' - which proved to be both an exciting feat of origami and a super keepsake of the day. Children in Willow Class also enjoyed a fantastic World Book Day quiz that had been created by two pupils in the class. What incredible engagement!

We loved our special morning but we were very excited about going home to play in the snow! Thank you to all of our families for your brilliant support with encouraging the children's involvement. Their costumes and outfits were a real joy to see!

To see fantastic images of our celebrations, please visit the News section of our website. Many thanks.

Mrs Breakwell
