Harvest Competition

This year we will be holding a Harvest Competition for children to enter. There will be three categories which are:

- ♦ Make an animal out of fruit/vegetables
- ♦ Design a piece of artwork linked to harvest
- ♦ Bake something

Entries will cost 50p per category and children can enter all of them if they wish.

There will be a winner in each category at Key Stage 1 and Key Stage 2.

Please could entries be brought into school on the morning of Friday 20th October.

Harvest Celebration

There will be a Harvest Celebration in the hall on Friday 20th October;

2 p.m. - Rec, Y1 and Y2

2.30 p.m. - Y3, Y4, Y5 and Y6

Please come along and join in the celebrations!

ooVoo—Guide for Parents

We have received information regarding this app and its possible unsafe use, which may be of interest to parents/guardians.

Phonics Session Reminder

Miss Abbott and Miss Peart will be holding a phonics session for parents of Reception and Year 1 children, on Tuesday 10th October. Parents of Year 2 child may also attend if they think it may be beneficial.

There will be 2 sessions; one at 3.30 p.m. and one at 5.30 p.m. Sessions should not last longer than half an hour.

Please come along to find out more about how you can help your child with phonics.

Funky Hair Friday

The Friends of Ellwood have organised a Funky Hair Friday for Friday 13th October.

In return for coming to school wearing Funky Hair they would like you to bring in a donation for the Christmas Fayre.

Items such as a good quality book, an unwanted present, a box/bar of chocolate or a raffle prize.

Please see the flyer that has been sent home for further details.
