

[KEY] I am able to explain my views.		I can predict what may happen in a story by thinking about what has happened up to now.		I have learnt a few poems by heart.		I am able to read aloud and perform poems and plays.		[KEY] I am able to make simple summaries of a given number of paragraphs I have read.
		I can show how words, phrases and structure all contribute to make different meanings in texts I read.		[KEY] I am becoming familiar with a range of books.		[KEY] I use some of the words and word parts that understand already to think about what new words mean and sound like.		I recommend books I have read to my friends.		I know authors use words or phrases which will have impact on a reader.
I know the difference between a fact and an opinion.		I am able to identify and discuss themes across a range of writing.		I read and discuss a range of fiction, poetry, plays, non-fiction and reference books.		I understand books are set out in different ways for different purposes.		I can make simple comparisons across books I have read.		[KEY] I can find and make notes on information from non-fiction.
[KEY] I am beginning to participate in discussions about books I have read by listening to others' ideas.		I can ask questions about what I have read.		[KEY] I check my understanding of a text through discussion and exploring the meaning of words.		I can see that characters do the things they do because of their feelings.		I can debate topics I have read about.			